

The logo for Keith Longbotham features a large, stylized red letter 'K' on the left. To its right, the name 'Keith' is written in a large, red, serif font, and 'longbotham' is written below it in a smaller, brown, sans-serif font. The background of the logo area is a textured, golden-brown color with faint, diagonal lines.

Keith longbotham

This trio has been performing together for over ten years. Each performer has a unique style yet blended together, compliment each other to form a very entertaining show. Keith, Chris and T.J. each have many years experience as musicians and entertainers. Listed below are some of their individual credits.

Keith Longbotham...

Keith is the lead singer for the trio. He plays guitar and banjo. He had a regular show for seven years at Opryland Theme Park in Nashville, during this time he performed on many of the Nashville Network Television shows. He has also appeared on the world famous Grand Ole Opry.

Chris Marion...

Chris is an accomplished pianist, singer and songwriter. He has written many children's musicals in the gospel field. Last year one of his works was nominated for a Dove Award. Chris was formerly with a group called Western Flyer, he currently is the piano player for Little River Band.

T.J. Klay...

T.J. is one of the finest harmonica players in the country today. He also plays mandolin and guitar, in addition to being a talented musician he is a singer/songwriter too. He was also with the group Western Flyer, before they disbanded in 1997 they had several top 40 records and one top ten song; What Will You Do With M.E..

This trio has performed for fairs, conventions RV rallies, resorts, churches, and all types of special events. They bring a unique and refreshing show that combines great music, good clean humor and inspiration that works great for any event.